

ADDITIONAL COURSES GUIDE

International and Global Human Rights (HR: 157)

2016-17 Undergraduate Bulletin

The following list should be used only as a GUIDE for selecting courses to fulfill Additional Course requirement for the International and Global Studies major with a concentration in International and Global Human Rights. Courses highlighted in yellow represent RECOMMENDED courses (see also “Lists of Recommended Courses”). IGS-marked offerings taught in a given semester appear in the Course Schedules (consult the “Category” listing) published by the University Registrar’s Office. Both this Guide and the Registrar’s Course Schedules are subject to change as courses are added to or deleted from the curriculum. Final IGS credit decisions are subject to approval by the Director of IGS or a designated Program advisor.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS NOTE: IGS majors pursuing this concentration must complete 18 sh of Additional Course work at the 200 level or above. At least 15 sh of this work must focus primarily on topics related to Human Rights in international and global contexts,* with at least 9 sh done at the upper-level (300 level and above); the remaining 3 sh (to complete the 18 sh requirement) may or may not focus on Human Rights. In addition, although Additional Courses for this concentration may be selected from any of the four course categories, they must comply with the distribution requirement for the IGS major: i.e., up to 9 sh in a single subject category and no more than 6 sh in any other. Unless otherwise indicated (below), these courses must also focus primarily on the “modern” period: i.e., from the 19th century through the present.

* Among these hours, majors MAY include up to 3 sh of course work that considers Human Rights primarily in the U.S. context.
