procedures deployed at Guantanamo hobbled rather than enabled the rule of law. by Guantanamo and underscore how the treatment of detainees and the extra-legal These first-hand testimonies reveal the physical, emotional, and political scars inflicted lives have been touched and forever changed by Guantanamo. history through the literal faces and voices of the detainees and the many others whose Guantanamo, both the exhibit and the collection, provides an intimate connection to that 20th anniversary of the arrival of the first detainees at Guantanamo Bay Detention
The past year has marked the 20th anniversary of 9/11 and this month the Jan. 20th- Feb. 27th, You can submit both short and long form pieces dignity for publication. The deadline for long-form scholarly submissions to Dignity is February essays, book or movie reviews, artwork, poetry, and other forms of human rights content to Dignity is a student run undergraduate human rights journal that seeks to showcase a broad Dignity: An Undergraduate Human Rights Journal immigrant-serving organizations.

The keynote will be followed by a panel discussion and breakout groups with leaders of local factors that promote or hinder the well-being of Latino immigrant families. of Public Policy at the University of California, Riverside—whose impactful work examines immigrant communities. A keynote address will be delivered by Cecilia Ayón, Ph.D.—Professor devotees of human rights issues of our day: the inequities experienced by immigrants, children of immigrants and In the spirit of the centennial of the women's suffrage movement, we highlight one of the civil American and African Diaspora Studies, in learning about the 21st century scholarly activism

In honor of Frederick Douglass's birthday and the Black activist networks predating 20th century
A Transcribe-A-Thon featuring the Colored Conventions Project
Frederick Douglass Day: Black Women in the Archives MHRA 1305 or open to the public.

Cultures for this virtual seminar as part of their Chinese Spring Festival celebrations. View live Join UNCG's Chinese Studies program and Department of Languages, Literatures, and Virtual,
Friday, Feb. 11th at 6pm
Language Diversity in China Seminar

It's not too late to start your study abroad application for the summer for an all-UNCG panel on the issue. Scroll down for more information. want to learn more about the current situation, join us this Friday at 12 noon tensions between Russia and Ukraine are sky high at the moment, with both student stories from study abroad.
Calling all study abroad alums! International Programs Center is looking for

IGS Faculty and Staff Office Hours Fall 2021
Virtually and in person at Foust 103 G Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10-11